The battle was over what was spoken by God therefore challenging God himself because “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God (John1:1). His attacked has not changed since the beginning.

After binding of the enemy and losing the people of God free we declare and decree Isa. 58:6-7

- The bonds of wickedness are loosed
- Heavy burdens are undone
- The oppressed have gone free
- Every yoke is broken
- We divide our bread with the hungry and bring the homeless poor into our house and church house.
- We cover the naked when we see them.
- And we will not hide ourselves from our own flesh.

We declare and decree our freedom and will walk in that freedom by:

- We will put on the whole armor of God, that we quench the fiery darts of the enemy (Ephesians 6:16)
- Speak positive confessions (Mark 11:23b)
- Stay in the scripture (2 Timothy 2:15)
- Crucify the flesh (1 Corinthians 15:31)
- Develop a life of continuous praise and prayer (Psalms 34:1, Luke 18:1)
- Maintain a life of fellowship and spiritual ministry
- Commit yourself totally to Christ (Mark 12:30).
